4. [redacted] of ONE, informed me of the possibility that he may be called before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee in connection with their investigation of the alleged destruction of certain Naval Intelligence files during World War II. [redacted] was in ONI at the time, and at the request of Adm. Espe, present DNI, he has reviewed the files available to the Navy on this subject. I suggested that [redacted] inform me as soon as he hears if he is to be called.
